Dear Mr. Jones:

Thank you very much for your letter of 2 December inviting me to address the College of Law of West Virginia University on 18 February 1961.

I sincerely regret that I will be unable to accept your kind invitation. In view of my present position, it is necessary for me to restrict my speaking engagements to the various government service schools except on a rare occasion when I make an outside address. Unfortunately, I cannot make an additional commitment at this time.

Your courtesy in asking me to join you on this occasion is indeed appreciated and I would like to wish you every success in your Spring Rush Banquet.

With kindest regards,

SIGNED

Sincerely,
